

Personal Statement Template Example

SECTION I: INTRO

There is need to INDICATE ones area of specialization and at least one key personal interest to the particular area of specialization...

- It is important to Indicate the target learning institution, school, course one is applying for ( It's key to specify the name of the institution or otherwise give credibility of how the school/course could assist you in realizing your career goals and study interest,; credits to school facility...staff, reputation etc

SECTION II: BODY

- Indicate why you chose the area of specialization under the particular course, influence, like, experience, choice or why.
- Indicate any personal practical experience in the field or related environment to the area you wish to study.

This involves giving more insight on relevance, practicability and the better reason to support your choice of the school and the particular area of specialization.

SECTION III: CONCLUSION

- Indicate your short-term career goals
- Indicate your long term career goals.

Sign out with a closing statement.